Ticket Information

General admission ticket prices for the 1983 Bowling Green football season will remain the same as last year. Reserved chair seats for single games remain $7.00, individual reserved bench seats on the east side of the stadium are $6.00, and BGSU student general admission seats are $2.00. Any group of 15 or more people may purchase group reserved bench seats in advance of game day on the east side of the stadium for $3.50 each. Also, a group of 15 or more BGSU students may purchase group reserved bench seats in advance of game day on the east side for $2.00. In addition to the chair seats and BGSU student general admission seats there are two additional general admission price ranges on the west side. Adult general admission is $3.50 and youth (high school age and younger) general admission is $2.50. A general admission ticket for the 5,000-plus end zone seats in both the north and south end zones costs $2.50.

In addition, the Memorial Hall Ticket Office is now open from 9 a.m. until 11:30 a.m. each game day for ticket purchases. Also, advance sale tickets for all remaining home games are on sale in the advance sale ticket booth on both the east and west sides of the stadium.

The Falcon House is also open daily for ticket sales and will serve as BGSU's downtown ticket outlet.

Doyt L. Perry Field

This is the eighteenth year that the Falcons have played their football games in Doyt L. Perry Stadium. Built in 1966 for approximately $2.8 million, it now has a seating capacity of 30,300 with the addition of the end zone seats in 1982.

The field is named in honor of the man who coached the Falcons to a 77-10-5 record from 1955-64. Perry remained as Bowling Green's athletic director for six years after stepping down as football coach. Now retired, Perry is still a nine month resident of Bowling Green, and is one of the Falcons' staunchest boosters.

The east side of the stadium includes dressing rooms, the equipment and training rooms, and most of the athletic department offices. On the west side are the maintenance area, storage rooms, handball courts, the track offices, the Falcon Club office and the Falcon Clubhouse. Sitting atop the press box on the west side is the Stadium Club. Now in its fourth year of operation, the Stadium Club has 106 theatre-type seats, and is one of the finest facilities of its kind in the midwest.

Bowling Green won the first game ever played in Perry Field, blanking Dayton, 13-0, on October 1, 1966. Coming into this season, the Falcons have a 49-33-2 record in games played here.

Falcons & Cardinals both needs wins

By Steve Shutt

Today is a critical day for the Falcons. Not only are they in a must-win situation here at Doyt L. Perry Field, but Mid-American Conference co-leaders Northern Illinois and Toledo are in a must-lose situation.

The Falcons still have a shot at both the MAC Championship and the California Bowl berth that accompanies the title. But the set of circumstances that must occur in order to send Bowling Green back to Fresno in December, wouldn't draw very good odds in Las Vegas.

Bowling Green must defeat Ball State today and then earn wins over Ohio University and Kent State in the two remaining games in order to finish 7-2. The Falcons need Northern Illinois and Toledo to lose today and lose their season finales on November 19. In between, on November 12 at NIU, Toledo and the Huskies must tie. That would put UT and NIU at 6-2-1, and the Falcons will be California Bowl bound for the second straight year.

But a win today by either NIU or UT will eliminate the Falcons from the Cal Bowl berth.

But BG can still tie for the conference title. Should NIU or UT finish 7-2 and if BG finishes 7-2, then the Falcons would be co-champions. It's just that because BG lost to NIU and UT, that either one of the other teams would get the bowl bid.

But getting down to today's game, Ball State is in much the same situation. They must defeat BG and hope that UT and NIU lose also. So the Cardinals are in a must win situation and that will make for an exciting ball game today.

Both clubs rely heavily on talented sophomore quarterbacks. Ball State's Neil Britt has thrown for 1,835 yards and 11 touchdowns but has also tossed 16 interceptions. In comparison, Brian McClure has thrown for 2,518 yards and 11 touchdowns while throwing just nine interceptions.

Neither team has an overpowering rushing attack. The Falcons are led by tailback Darryl Story who has 326 yards rushing on the year. The Cardinals are paced by Terry Lymon who has 383 yards in nine games and Tony Bonanno who has 375 yards.

Both teams possess outstanding receivers. Tight end Mark Dowdell caught a record tying 13 passes last week and now has 50 catches on the year. Stan Hunter is nearing BG's record for receiving yards in a season. He has 45 receptions this year for 750 yards.

The Cardinals have an outstanding split end in Dave Naumcheff (51 catches for 799 yards) and tight end Mike Leuck (49 catches for 545 yards).

Records To Watch

Records have been broken in every BG game this season and a few more are in jeopardy today. Dowdell needs just seven receptions today to tie Fred Matthews' record of 57 catches in a season which he set in 1969. And Hunter, with 750 yards receiving this fall, needs just 124 yards to tie Jeff Groth's 1978 record of 874 yards in a season. And McClure needs just 105 yards of total offense to break Mike Wright's 1978 record of 2,382 yards in a season.

But if you expect today's game to be a wide open offensive battle, don't be surprised if it's not. Both clubs, contrary to popular belief, play solid defense. The Falcons are led by defensive back Martin Bayless, who picked off his fifth interception of the year last week. It was also the 24th interception of his career and Bayless ranks fourth in NCAA career interceptions. Linebacker Mark Emans leads the Falcons in tackles with 92. The Cardinals play a solid 5-2 alignment and Hawk back Kevin Young leads the club with six interceptions. Inside linebacker Tom Short is the club's leading tackler with 75 tackles.

Head Coach Denny Stolz

Denny Stolz has held three head college coaching positions, and now after guiding the Falcons to the 1982 Mid-American Conference Championship and earning MAC Coach of the Year honors, he has now won coach of the year honors at each of the three schools.

Entering his seventh year at Bowling Green, Stolz has a 29-38-1 record at Bowling Green, and an overall collegiate record of 82-67-1 in 15 years at Alma College, Michigan State and Bowling Green.

Stolz rejuvenated the football programs at Alma and Michigan State before coming to Bowling Green. His teams were undefeated in back-to-back seasons at Alma in 1967 and 1968. The 7-3-1 record his 1974 Michigan State team compiled was the best in seven years in East Lansing, and earned Stolz Big Ten Coach of the Year honors.

There were some lean times in Stolz' early years at Bowling Green, but the corner was turned in 1980. That season the Falcons were only 4-7 overall, but six of the seven losses were by four points or less. BG was in contention for the MAC Championship until the next-to-last game of the season, and wound up with a 4-4 mark in conference games. In 1981, the Falcons overcame an 0-4-1 start to win five consecutive games, ending up with a 5-5-1 overall record and a fourth place finish in the MAC with a 5-3-1 league record.

Last season, Stolz guided the Falcons to a 7-5 overall record and a 7-2 mark in league games. BG won the MAC title by two full games, and represented the MAC in California Bowl II. BG played well in the California Bowl, but dropped a heartbreaking, 29-28, decision to heavily-favored Fresno State when FSC scored a touchdown with 11 seconds left in the game.

A native of Lansing, MI, Stolz grew up in Mason, MI, and like his three brothers worked his way through Alma College to earn a bachelor's degree in 1955. He played quarterback for the Scots, and upon graduation became head football coach at Haslett (MI) High School, where he was 40-13-3 in nine years for a winning percentage of .741. Stolz then spent one year as defensive coordinator at Lansing Eastern High School before being named head coach at Alma prior to the 1965 season.

Taking over a program that had produced only three wins in four years, Stolz soon led his alma mater to 8-0 records for two consecutive years, and was named Michigan Coach of the Year in 1967. By the time he left Alma in 1971, Stolz had compiled a 34-16 record and led the school to two outright Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Association championships, and one co-championship.

His next stop was Michigan State, where Stolz served for two years as defensive coordinator for Duffy Daugherty before being named the Spartans' head coach in 1973. Again, Stolz turned around a struggling program. Within two years, Michigan State had climbed to 7-3-1 overall and 6-1-1 in the Big 10 for its best finish since the 1966 team went unbeaten. The Spartans finished twelfth in the Associated Press poll and eighteenth in the United Press International rankings, and Stolz was named Big 10 Coach of the Year.

Michigan State finished 7-4 the next year, beating Notre Dame 10-3 at South Bend. Stolz resigned from Michigan State in March, 1976, with a 19-13-1 record, the only winning record in the Big 10 outside of Ohio State or Michigan during the preceding three years.

While at Michigan State, Stolz coached the North to a victory in the All-American Bowl at Tampa, FL. He has lectured across the nation at football clinics, and on December 15, 1976, became the 12th head coach in the 63-year history of Bowling Green State University football.

Born September 12, 1934, Denny and his wife, Cena, have a son, Doak, 23, and two daughters, Dawn, 22 and Denise, 16.

CoSIDA Academic All-America Team

Despite unemployment and the high cost of living, it is a safe bet the members of the 1982 CoSIDA Football Academic All-America Team will not have much of a problem paying their rent or finding jobs.

The 25 individuals named to the team excelled on the football field, but it was their classroom work that could well carry them to successful professional lives. Professional avenues open to some members of the team include nuclear engineering, genetics, biology, economics, business administration and medicine.

To be eligible for the all-academic team, which is selected by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA), a player had to be a regular performer for his football team and have at least a 3.20 grade-point average (on a 4.00 scale) during the previous year. Those criteria were met and in most instances exceeded by the members of this year's team. The offensive squad combined for an average GPA of 3.60, while the defensive team compiled an average GPA of 3.65. Seventeen of the 25 players selected to the team recorded GPAs of 3.50 or better.

When the academic all-America team was not ruining the curve in the classroom, it was wrecking opponents' plans on the football field. Eighteen of the players helped their teams to post-season bowl games.

The leading vote-getter on the squad was Penn State quarterback Todd Blackledge. With a 3.90 grade-point average in speech communications, Blackledge certainly had no problems calling signals for Penn State. Blackledge paced the Nittany Lions to a 10-1 record last year, with 2,218 yards passing and 22 touchdown passes.

Another popular player among the voters was Nebraska center Dave Rimington. One of seven repeat members from the 1981 all-academic team, Rimington generally was considered one of the finest offensive linemen in the nation. And he has the hardware to prove it. Rimington was a two-time winner of the Outland Trophy and was selected for the 1982 Lombardi Award. With a 3.21 GPA in business administration, Rimington probably could have negotiated his own professional contract.

Chuck Nelson was not far behind

Blackledge and Rimington in accomplishments or votes. The all-America kicker from Washington made a big name for himself during the 1982 season by setting an NCAA season record for consecutive field goals (25). Nelson, who also was selected to the 1981 all-academic team, recorded a 3.47 GPA in business.

Other players who were named to the team for the second time included wide receiver Cormac Carney of UCLA (3.67 in psychology), offensive guard Rob Fada of Pittsburgh (3.26 in premed), defensive linemen Dan Gregus of Illinois (4.87 on a 5.00 scale in marketing), and John Bergren of Stanford (3.64 in engineering) and defensive back Darren Gale of Kansas State (4.00 in nuclear engineering).

National champion Penn State placed the most players on the 1982 team. Along with Blackledge, linebacker Scott Radicec (3.41 in architectural engineering) and defensive back Harry Hamilton (3.57 in prelaw) also were selected.

Georgia was represented on the team by defensive back Terry Hoage, who led the nation in interceptions with 12 and was one of the school's top genetics students with a 3.85 GPA.

Sixteen seniors and nine juniors compose the 1982 team. Following is the complete list:

OFFENSE: Quarterback—Todd Blackledge, Penn State, Sr., 3.90 GPA in speech communications; Running back—Mark Hundley, Kansas State, Jr., 3.80 GPA in engineering; Running back—Derrick Harmon, Cornell, Jr., 3.40 GPA in electrical engineering; Wide receiver—Cormac Carney, UCLA, Sr., 3.67 GPA in psychology; Wide receiver—Kevin Guthrie, Princeton, Jr., 3.50 GPA in engineering systems management; Tight end—John Frank, Ohio State, Jr., 3.75 GPA in Biology; Center—Dave Rimington, Nebraska, Sr., 3.21 GPA in business administration; Offensive guard—Stefan Humphries, Michigan, Jr., 3.94 GPA in interdisciplinary medical engineering; Offensive guard—Rob Fada, Pittsburgh, Sr., 3.26 GPA in premed; Offensive tackle—Joseph Smith, Ohio State, Sr., 3.96 GPA in preveterinary; Offensive tackle—Harvey Salem, California, Sr., 3.30 GPA in psychology; Kicking specialist—Chuck Nelson, Washington, Sr., 3.47 GPA in business administration.

Jefferson Award To Go To MAC's Top Player

The Downtown Athletic Club of Toledo has created The Jefferson Trophy, an award given annually to the most outstanding player in the Mid-American Conference. Last year's winner was Ray Bentley, a linebacker from Central Michigan, who went on to star with the Michigan Panthers, the United States Football League champions in 1983.

This year's awards dinner will be held December 1, 1983, in Jefferson Square in Toledo at the Downtown Athletic Club facility.

Each of the ten Mid-American Conference head coaches and two local news media people will select the winner of the award. Each school will nominate one player for the award, and all ten players will be honored at the banquet. From the proceeds of the banquet, awards will be presented to the college and player along with a scholarship fund to the winning player's university.

Because of the fact that Toledo is known as the "Glass Capital of the World," the Athletic Club obtained the assistance of a glass sculpturer to help in the development of a unique glass design for the awards presentation.

Tickets for the awards banquet can be purchased by contacting Bill Buehrer at the Downtown Athletic Club at 255-8748.

Bowling Green State University

Through its five undergraduate colleges, Bowling Green State University offers more than 150 degree programs in the traditional arts and sciences, as well as business, education, music and the growing field of health and community services. In addition, the Graduate College has 50 master's degrees and nine doctoral degree programs.

About 15,000 students are enrolled at Bowling Green. More than half of the undergraduates live in campus residence halls and most of the remainder within a couple of miles of the University.

For this closely-knit community of students, the University encourages and supports a large number of extra-curricular activities — including academic, cultural and social programs. On any given day, these events may include a concert, lecture, panel discussion, theatre or dance performance, film, mixer or other social get-together. The University also has a strong fraternity and sorority system and the campus is home to more than 200 clubs and organizations. Sports are also a major part of Bowling Green, and the University offers an extensive varsity and club program for both men and women.

Another dimension of this residential University is its recreational facilities. At the hub is the Student Recreation Center, which houses basketball, volleyball, racquetball and tennis courts, two swimming pools, weight rooms, a running track, a golf and archery range and numerous all-purpose activity areas.

At Bowling Green, students learn as much outside the classroom as they do in it. It is a concept to which the University is committed, making certain that learning is a non-stop activity and that at the end of four years, the University graduates an intelligent, mature and well-rounded individual.

This out-of-class learning is enhanced by the diverse backgrounds, ideas and beliefs of our students. Bowling Green students come from nearly all of Ohio's 88 counties, all 50 states and more than 60 foreign countries. This mix of students helps to create an exciting atmosphere for intellectual and cultural exchange.

This exchange is encouraged and directed by more than 700 full-time faculty members. These men and women are experts in their fields of study, and many are on the cutting edge of scientific research and discovery. During the past several years, faculty members have annually received approximately $4 million from outside agencies and foundations to conduct research.

At the center of this intellectual activity is the University's nine story Jerome Library, housing a collection of more than 700,000 books, 1.2 million pieces of microfilm, and 4,700 subscriptions to magazines, journals and other periodicals. The library is also home to 175,000 sound recordings, 375,000 government documents and a Popular Culture Library which supports the studies of the University's nationally known Popular Culture Program.

While most of the University's programs are geared to the residential student, Bowling Green has a commitment to the non-traditional student. Many courses, especially graduate courses, are offered at night to enable persons to continue their education while working full-time.

In addition to courses on the main campus, the University's Firelands College campus, located in Huron, Ohio, offers 17 two-year associate degree programs, as well as courses which fulfill the first two years of a bachelor degree requirement. Firelands College enrolls about 1,200 students.

As with everything, the cost of attending Bowling Green is on the rise, but the University offers a wide range of financial aid programs (including scholarships and loans) to assist a student and his or her parents with the cost of a college education. There are also a variety of student employment opportunities available on the campus.

For the student who lives in on-campus housing, Bowling Green is much like a mini-city. With a cafeteria in each housing complex, laundry facilities down the hall, classes on a wide variety of subjects only a short walk away, a non-stop schedule of activities, a bookstore which sells everything from the latest magazines to toiletries, Bowling Green is truly its own city — a city alive with activity, a city alive with learning.

Falcon Club Supports BGSU Athletics

The Bowling Green Athletic Department depends on the Falcon Club to raise more than $100,000 annually. Sixty-five percent of the undesignated Falcon Club gifts are turned over to the University to provide financial assistance in funding athletic grants-in-aid. Twenty-five percent of the undesignated gifts are used for helping to recruit prospective student-athletes. The remaining 10 percent supports the athletic equipment and facilities budget, helping Bowling Green to maintain its athletic physical plant as one of the best in the Mid-American Conference.

Membership in the Falcon Club offers the Bowling Green athletic booster an invitation to luncheons, post-game parties, preferred parking at the football, basketball and hockey games, golf outings, and many other social activities.

Please take time to study the information below, and if you would like further information, call the Falcon Club offices which are located right here in the west side of the stadium. Director of Athletic Development Jim Harris and secretary Jan Kiehl are there to serve you.

50-50 Drawing

One of the most popular money-raising techniques employed by the Falcon Club is the 50-50 drawing at each football, basketball and hockey game. All Falcon fans are invited to participate in today's 50-50 drawing.

Tickets are $1.00 each and may be purchased on either side of the stadium from Falcon Club members. The winner of the drawing will be announced during the third quarter, and will take home half the money that was taken in today. The other half goes to the grant-in-aid fund to support all varsity sports at Bowling Green.

Falcon Club luncheons offer the opportunity for club members and coaches to get together on an informal basis.

Dear Falcon Fan:

We share with you an enthusiastic desire for winning athletics at Bowling Green. In order to sustain a winning program, however, we must meet the financial challenges of athletic excellence.

Falcon Club membership offers you an opportunity to get behind our teams and coaches. Falcon Club donations have been the salvation of our program, and to win in 1983 will require a supreme Falcon Club effort.

I am interested in learning more about the Falcon Club and its activities.

Kickers Among Nation's Best

By Steve Shutt

Punters and placekickers are an independent breed. Not belonging to either the offense or the defense, they spend much of their time practicing kicking into small nets along the sideline. Kickers are also the ones who must often times shoulder the pressure of the team. Games are often decided in the last seconds on the strength of one's placekicker's foot.

What makes it tough for kickers is that their mistakes are plainly evident. Not everybody sees the defensive back who falls down to allow a touchdown pass to be thrown over him, or the offensive lineman who misses the block allowing the quarterback to be sacked. But should a punter shank a kick or a placekicker blow the extra point, everybody in the stadium knows where to direct the jeers.

But would you believe it if you were told that the Falcons have the second best kicking game in the nation? The Falcons are only one of two teams in the country that have both their placekicker and punter in the national rankings.

Punter Jim Phelps and kicker Gehad Youssef give Bowling Green one of the best kicking combinations in the nation. Youssef is fifth in the nation in field goals with an average of 1.86 FG's per game. Phelps is 16th in the nation in punting with an average of 43.4 yards per kick. Tennessee's combination of Jimmy Colquitt (44.0) and Fuad Reveiz (1.86 FG) makes the Volunteers the only other team besides Bowling Green to have two nationally ranked kickers.

JIM PHELPS

Youssef and Phelps, both juniors, have made a tremendous impact on the Bowling Green team and its great success of the last two seasons. Both juniors, Youssef and Phelps have grown and matured as ball players over the last two seasons.

"Both Jim and Gehad have matured," said defensive coordinator Tim McConnell, who coordinates special team play. "They are both older, experienced players. They have almost three full seasons behind them and they're relaxed under pressure."

Youssef is having an outstanding year, having connected on 13 of 17 field goal attempts including a 56-yarder at Western Michigan that set a new BGSU record and was just a yard short of the Mid-American Conference record. Youssef now has 30 career field goals and is pushing towards Don Taylor's BG record of 33 career three-pointers. He has booted 30 of 45 field goal attempts in his career and has hit on 46 of 48 extra point attempts. He has a current streak of 35 straight PAT's.

Youssef's performance this season has been very consistent. He gives part of the credit to a kicking camp he attended this past summer conducted by Mike Farley at the University of Wisconsin-River Falls.

"They went all over the basics and taught us that if we messed up, we should start all over again with the basics," said Youssef.

Before a kick, the 6'1", 195 junior from Toledo Central Catholic hovers over his tee, "trying to picture the perfect kick." His success this year is also due in part to a vigorous weight training program he began this summer.

Youssef was born in Egypt and came to the United States when he was 12. The first time he played football was in the eighth grade. Besides punting and kicking, Gehad also played defensive back and tight end. When he moved on to Central Catholic, he was still listed as a split end and defensive back though he rarely played any position other than kicking.

Youssef earned all-city honors in football and all-state in soccer. He was being recruited by Toledo and Ohio State among others until he tore a ligament in his knee while kicking a 44-yard field goal.

Phelps is one of those rare, natural athletes who can perform any sport for the first time and look like he's been playing it for years. It's rumored that the first time Phelps played golf, he shot a 77.

Phelps is BG's leading punter in both career and season yardage. He has kicked for 8,330 career yards on 202 kicks for a 41.2 average. He is nearing the MAC record for career punting yards of 9,913.

He has earned first team all-MAC honors each of his first two years and is currently second in the conference in punting.

Phelps is also an outstanding baseball player and posted a 5-2 record with a 2.22 earned run average. Phelps shutout league champion Miami 4-0 in Oxford last spring in a crucial win for the Falcons. Though not selected to the all-MAC baseball team, Phelps led the conference in ERA and the fact that he was not selected to the all-MAC team was a great injustice to the best pitcher in the league.

Phelps proved his baseball versatility by hitting a grand slam in the one plate appearance of his career as a Falcon. Phelps also returned punts last week for the first time, just another talent inside this young man.

"Jim Phelps helps us by speeding up his kick when there's pressure on him," said McConnell. "He adjusts to a two step or three step kick depending on how much time he has. His talent is reflected in the fact that he's only had one kick blocked in his career. He also gets very good hang time on his kicks and that allows us to cover them well."

The Falcon kicking game. Just another part of the BG football program that's the best in the MAC.

CIMARRON '84 THIS ONE'S GOT THE TOUCH.

The Cadillac touch. It's everywhere. You can feel it when you put Cadillac's road-hugging Touring Suspension to the test. You can see it ... inside and out. From leather-faced front buckets with lumbar support to aluminum alloy wheels. It's attention to detail, too. Like push-button air. And tungsten halogen fog lamps. You've got to drive this car...and experience the Cadillac touch. Cimarron '84.

BEST OF ALL...IT'S A CADILLAC.

Let's Get It Together...Buckle Up.

Mark S. Kelly

Mark S. Kelly is director of bands and professor of music education at Bowling Green State University.

A native of Centerville, Iowa, where he taught for 13 years as director of instrumental music, Mr. Kelly is a guest director, critic, and adjudicator of numerous festivals and contests throughout the United States. Immediately prior to joining the Bowling Green State University faculty in August of 1966, he served one year as graduate assistant and one semester as acting director of the University of Iowa Bands and supervisor for music education students doing practice teaching.

Mr. Kelly earned both the bachelor of arts and master of arts degrees from the University of Iowa in 1950 and 1952 respectively.

While he was at Centerville High School, the Concert Band appeared twice (1957 and 1963) at the Mid-West National Band Clinic in Chicago, and in 1961 Woodwind Ensembles from the band presented a Woodwind literature repertoire session at the Mid-West. This clinic is the largest instrumental clinic of its kind in the United States and participation is invitational.

Under Mr. Kelly's guidance the band program at Bowling Green State University has expanded from two concert bands and a marching band to include the Symphonic Band, Wind Ensemble, four Concert Bands, the Marching Band and an Athletic Band. The Symphonic Band, conducted by Mr. Kelly, has appeared on many professional conference stages.

In October, 1974, Mr. Kelly was honored in being selected as one of the Ten Most Outstanding Music Directors in the United States by the School Musician Magazine. He was the 1981 recipient of the Edwin Franko Goldman Award presented by the American School Band Director's Association for outstanding contribution to the advancement of school bands, and in 1983 was made an honorary member of the Golden Key National Honor Society.

Falcon Marching Band Welcomes Parents

Today the Falcon Marching Band welcomes all parents of present, past and future BG students. We open our show with one of Stevie Wonder's greatest hits, You Are the Sunshine of My Life. Our concert tune is familiar with fans of both Stan Kenton or Doc Severinsen — the fiery Macarena. With many memories being recalled today, today's performance closes with Memory.

Don't Delay! Mark the Falcon Marching Band concert on your calendar. This year's concert is Sunday, November 20 at 3:00 p.m. in Anderson Arena.

Band Staff

Directors: Mark S. Kelly and Glenn C. Hayes

Graduate Assistants: Vicki Cindea and Douglas Brokaw

Flag Instructor: Vicki Cindea

Drum Major: Christopher Garrett

Announcer: Robert Erickson

Twirler Advisor: Kathy Siebenaler

Camp of Champions

By Stephanie Eaton

Once again this summer, Bowling Green State University Summer Sports Schools will offer boys and girls from ages 10 to 17 a chance to have fun, make new friends, and become better athletes.

The Summer Sports School has attracted more than 8,500 boys and girls during its first 10 years, and will offer campers a choice of 13 one-week camps. The camps are directed by Bowling Green State University's head coaches with additional help from BG team members. Instructional time is spent helping campers improve skills and prepare for their upcoming athletic seasons.

Gary Palmisano, University varsity soccer coach and director of the summer sports school, said the program is one of the best attended in the country. He attributed its success to the individual attention given to each young athlete.

"The accent of our schools is on the individual," said Palmisano. "We want the campers to learn and practice athletic skills as well as have fun. We don't want to leave them totally exhausted. We work under the philosophy that coming to this camp will be the highlight of the summer for many of the kids, and we want them to have the best summer they ever had."

While each student receives small group or individual instruction, there is also time for supervised recreation and full use of Bowling Green's $9 million Student Recreation Center. Trained counselors organize evening activities such as miniature golf, roller skating, and bowling.

"We do not believe that our responsibility ends when the kids walk off the field or out of the gym," said Palmisano. "We keep them busy throughout the entire day."

Programs for next summer include baseball, boys basketball, girls basketball, co-ed cross country, boys football, co-ed golf, and girls gymnastics.

Other programs are co-ed soccer, co-ed swimming, co-ed diving, co-ed tennis and racket sports, and girls volleyball.

Campers are divided into different groups depending on their age and physical ability allowing each student to progress at his own rate. This allows students of differing athletic ability a chance to gain the most from instruction. Instruction of each sport is coordinated by the University's head varsity coach in that particular sport, using assistant coaches, area college and high school coaches, and occasionally, famous athletes during three-hour morning and three-hour afternoon sessions.

For parents interested in getting their children involved in Bowling Green Summer Sports Program, a holiday gift certificate can be purchased now as a seasonal gift for young athletes. Discounts are available to students who are children of University alumni, brothers and sisters of University students, children of University employees, or former sport school participants. Additional information and registration materials can be obtained by writing to: Gary Palmisano, Summer Sports School, Athletic Department, Bowling Green State University, Bowling Green, Ohio 43403. The phone number is (419) 372-2401.

Former Falcons in Pro Football

At least 31 former Falcon football standouts have been drafted by or played for a team in the National Football League, United States Football League, or the old American Football League. Among the most prominent Falcon alumni who played starring roles in professional football are Bernie Casey, a wide receiver with the Los Angeles Rams and San Francisco 49ers in the 1960's; Bob Reynolds, an offensive tackle with the St. Louis Cardinals for more than a decade; Jamie Rivers, a linebacker for three pro teams for nine years; Bob Schnelker, an offensive end with the New York Giants in their prime; Phil Villapiano, an all-pro linebacker with the Oakland Raiders, and now the Buffalo Bills; and Mike Weger, a standout defensive back with the Detroit Lions.

Two former Falcons, Mark Miller and Tom Moriarty, were members of the 1983 USFL Champion Michigan Panthers.

Two members of the 1983 Falcon championship team were in pro training camps this summer. Defensive lineman Andre Young was drafted in the twelfth round by the Cincinnati Bengals, and wide receiver Shawn Potts signed a free agent contract with the Cleveland Browns. Both players were released near the end of training camp.

A list of the former Falcons and their professional team follows.

Dirk Abernathy - Oakland, 1979

Tony Bell - Baltimore, 1973

Bernie Casey - SF, LA, 1961-68

Jay Cunningham - Boston, 1965-67

Joe Green - NY Giants, 1970-71

Jeff Groth - Miami, Houston, New Orleans, 1979-SA

Jerry Jones - New Orleans, 1966-68

Gene Jones - New Orleans, 1976

Jim Ladd - Chicago Cardinals, 1954-56

Don Lisbon - San Francisco, 1963-67

Mark Miller - Cleveland, Green Bay, Kansas City, Oakland, 1978-82, Michigan Panthers, 1983

Tom Moriarty - Atlanta, Pittsburgh, 1977-81, Michigan Panthers, 1983

Mike Obrovac - Cincinnati, 1981-SA

Rick Perrin - NY Giants, 1969-70

Shawn Potts - Cleveland, 1983-

Dave Preston - NE, Denver, 1977-SA

Bob Reynolds - St. Louis, Boston, 1963-75

Roger Reynolds - NY Giants, 1969-70

Jamie Rivers - St. Louis, NY Jets, Houston, 1968-76

Ken Russell - Detroit, 1957-59

Dan Saleet - Cleveland, 1978

MAC Champion Returns To California Bowl

The third annual California Bowl, pitting the Mid-American Conference Champion against the Pacific Coast Athletic Association (PCAA) Champion, will be held on Saturday, December 17 in Fresno, California.

The third annual California Bowl will be hard pressed to duplicate the excitement generated by the first two bowl games. In 1981, the University of Toledo upset a heavily-favored San Jose State, 27-25, on a last second field goal. Last year California Bowl II saw Fresno State erase a 21-point deficit to nip Bowling Green, 29-28. The outcome of both games thus far has been decided within the last 15 seconds of the fourth quarter.

This year's spectacle again will be televised throughout the nation by the Mizlou Television Network and it will also be aired on ESPN. The California Bowl is one of six bowl games being produced by Mizlou this season. The other bowl games are the Independence Bowl, Florida Citrus (formerly Tangerine) Bowl, Holiday Bowl, Bluebonnet Bowl, and the Senior Bowl.

The California Bowl, sponsored by the Greater San Joaquin Valley Sports Association, is played in Fresno State's new 30,000 seat stadium. The "closed end" bowl agreement between the MAC and the PCAA is one of only two such bowl pacts linking participants from specific conferences. The other is the Rose Bowl.

The football game caps a spectacular week of cultural and sporting activities that are designed to include people from all over the San Joaquin Valley as well as the area served by the MAC and the PCAA. Valley Children's Hospital in Fresno is a direct beneficiary of the California Bowl.

Seven members of the PCAA will vie for the 1983 football championship. The members are Cal State Long Beach, Fresno State, Cal State Fullerton, Pacific, Utah State, and Nevada-Las Vegas. New Mexico State is the newest member of the PCAA but will be ineligible to compete for the football title because of scheduling conflicts.

Long Beach is the favorite to win the PCAA this year, according to balloting conducted by the PCAA football media association. Fresno State is picked to finish second. Bowling Green is picked to win the MAC according to the MAC football media.

NCAA Honor Roll

Program recognizes past, present student-athletes

Arnold Palmer, five current and five former student-athletes were honored at this year's NCAA honors luncheon held during the Association's 77th annual Convention in San Diego in January.

Palmer received the NCAA's highest honor, the Theodore Roosevelt Award. The award is named for the 26th president of the United States, who played a key role in organizing what later became the NCAA.

Palmer, the 1960's "Athlete of the Decade" and the man generally credited for the growth in popularity of professional golf during that time, is the 17th winner of the NCAA's "Teddy."

Palmer, 53, was tournament medalist in the 1949 and 1950 National Collegiate Golf Championships and was the top player on the golf team at Wake Forest University for four years.

The "Teddy" is presented annually to a distinguished citizen of national prominence who, having earned a varsity athletic award in college, has exemplified the ideals and purposes of college athletics by a continuing interest and concern for physical fitness and amateur sport.

Also honored at the luncheon were five current and past student-athletes.

Two NCAA postgraduate scholarship winners, two all-America football players and the U.S. Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association's McLoughlin Trophy winner made up the list of winners of the NCAA Today's Top Five awards.

Today's Top Five

Bruce Baumgartner, a wrestler from Indiana State University, was undefeated during his senior year, leading to his NCAA championship. Baumgartner earned an NCAA postgraduate scholarship with a 3.77 grade-point average in industrial arts education.

John Elway, an all-America quarterback from Stanford University, holds several NCAA passing records and was the first sophomore ever named as the Pac-10 player of the year. Elway does volunteer work with the Palo Alto Community Association of the Retarded and participated in the NCAA-ABC Football Promotion Tour and the Fiesta Bowl-NCAA Drug Education Program.

Lacrosse's McLoughlin Trophy winner, Richard Giusto of Virginia was the number one midfield goal scorer in the country last year with 30 goals and five assists. The economics major was named to the University of Virginia's Raven Society, the school's outstanding award presented to 30 individuals from the graduating class.

Charles "Karch" Kiraly, volleyball player from UCLA, helped the Bruins to three national championships in volleyball and twice won most-outstanding-player honors. Kiraly, another NCAA postgraduate scholarship winner, is enrolled in a premedical curriculum majoring in biochemistry.

Nebraska's Dave Rimington is the only two-time winner of the Outland Trophy, symbolic of the nation's best lineman and also was named as the recipient of the Lombardi Trophy during the 1982 football season. Rimington is a National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete and a two-time academic all-America.

Five former intercollegiate athletes were selected by the NCAA as recipients of the Silver Anniversary awards, which are to honor former student-athletes who have led distinguished lives after outstanding athletic careers in college 25 years ago.

Silver Anniversary Awards

Currently U.S. Ambassador to the Philippines, Mike Armacost was a six-sport letterman at Carleton College and still remains among the school's all-time scorers in basketball. Armacost began his association with the federal government in 1969 when he joined the State Department.

Richard Censits, an all-Ivy League performer in basketball at the University of Pennsylvania, is vice-chair of the Penn Athletic Advisory Board and is a member of the Alumni Committee on Athletics. Censits joined the Campbell Soup company in 1975 as vice-president and chief financial officer.

The first NCAA athlete to record a "double" in the 880-yard run and the mile run, Ronald Delany is the assistant chief executive for the British and Irish Steam Packing Company. Delany won four NCAA titles while a member of the Villanova track team and won an Olympic gold medal in the 1,500-meter run in 1956.

Aubrey Lewis was a three-year letterman at halfback for Notre Dame and was an NCAA champion in the 440-yard intermediate hurdles as a member of the Notre Dame track squad. Lewis currently is vice-president for security and administrative services for the F.W. Woolworth Company and is past commissioner of the New Jersey Sports and Exposition Authority.

Since lettering at quarterback and halfback at the University of Michigan, Jack Lousma has logged more than 24 million miles in space as one of the original 19 astronauts selected by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration. Lousma piloted Skylab 3 in 1973 and also served as commander for the third orbital flight of the space shuttle Columbia.

Arnold Palmer accepts the Theodore Roosevelt Award from 1982-1983 NCAA President James Frank.
